TO NON-SUBSCRIBERS WHO RECEIVE THE BUGLE.

Non-subscribers need not decline receiving the Bugle, fearing that they will be called upon to pay for it. We send no paper-except gratis copiesonless paid for in advance. So we say to each of the above class, the paper is either sent to you as a gratuity by the publishers, or else paid for in your name by some friend.

> From our Special Reporter. THE PRESIDENTIAL PROGRESS.

I write from Harrisburg, Pa., which, on last Declaration of Independence.) Saturday, we reporters voted ought to have its orthography changed to Harassburg; but I must not commence my fetter with the finale of my story. A FORTUNATE MISHAP.

was truly fortunate, for it appears that there was if you can, the consternation of our company when was truly fortunate, for it appears that there was if you can, the consternation of our company when such a crowd and a crush at Baffalo that personal on Saturday morning a despatch came from injury was received by several of the President's Washington, saying the President was there. At attendants; so my long sleep in Cleveland was a first we were incredulous, and insisted that he sioner White, the moment the traveling party blessing in more ways than one.

HOW ORDER MIGHT HAVE BEEN WAINTAINED.

My friend, of the Cleveland Leader, in commen-'ting upon the outrageous disorder which prevailed at Buffalo, intimated that had the Cleveland Grays been on duty there, "Heaven's first law" would have been better observed. Now without In the least impeaching the bravery or the genwral efficiency of the Grays, I must be permitted 'to express a doubt whether they would have help-'ed the matter although they had tried until they were black and blue. It would have been comparatively easy for them to have escorted the fugitive Lucy to her master's home in Wheelinga service which I understand they volunteered to rying a slave woman back to bondage.

I REJOIN THE COMPANY.

Having reached Buffalo before the President left, I took my accustomed place and proceeded with the rest. Our progress through New York State was one continued evation, and the friends

We, the reporters, and the rest of the company of 1832, called upon Gen. Jackson to learn, if power to their representatives to call the State inpossible, what the General intended to do toward to being, and fivest it with no authority. Blot

AN INCIDENT MORE EXCITING THAN AFFECTING. You may remember that I told you how on one occasion in Cincinnati the hearts of all beholders were touched, and their eyes filled with tears in consequence of the President graciously kissing a child. He continues to manifest the same disposition to kiss; and on his way from Cleveland to Buffalo, as I learn from one of my fellow reporters, he called out from the crowd, and twice kissthat the cultivation of whiskers would improve the responsibility. The Presidential Progress was undertaken contrary to Lincoln's best judgment, and in opposition to his feelings, and he was in succession and in opposition to his feelings, and he was in like manner compelled to leave Harrisburg. Who any touchingness being attached to the incident, and in opposition to his feelings, and he was in the United States to it?" "It is, General." Gov. Letcher all of the United States to it?" "It is, General." Gov. Letcher all of the United States to it?" "It is, General." Gov. Letcher all of the United States to it?" "It is, General." Gov. Letcher all of the United States to it?" "It is, General." Gov. Letcher all of the United States to it?" "It is, General." Gov. Letcher all of the United States to it?" "It is, General." Gov. Letcher all of the United States to it?" The Louisiana Secessionists were not going to wonder if the scriptural injunction, "Go thou and made manifest in time. do likewise" presented itself to the minds of all beholders. Whether the double salute was wel-Though Bob Lincoln cannot make speeches, he ment have entered the Capital, waiting, if neces-could certainly somewhat relieve his father of this sary, for the escort of a regiment of troops, or of light and pleasant duty, and like a good son would ten if needed. But I submit that it is neither pers, and we publish it to show what kind of stuff Layirre and his pirate crew were gentlemen comdoubtless be willing to do so.

PAGGED OUT.

pare-worn, exhausted, and ill. And what wonder? plantation. I am disgusted, and I confess it free-He has had no rest since le left Springfield, and ly-thoroughly disgusted, and having changed my has made, on an average, from ten to twenty character, shall apply to the Legislature to have speeches a day, which, to be sure, were not very my name changed to something beside long, and some may intimate that they were not very strong. This, however, matters but little; it was words, not ideas, that the people wanted, He is kept up late every night receiving calls, and has averaged at least ten thousand shakes of the hand per day. What wonder, then, that the man apprehended prior to the 4th of March.

At Albany he visited the Legislature, shook was presumed to be worthy of Presidential notice. and then passed on to

There the secession Mayor Wood welcomed the Union President in a speech which some pronounce treasonable. But before the speech was reached, a triumphal march had to be made through the streets of the city under arches and between rows of banners, some bearing appropriate inscriptions, and some not so appropriate On one I noticed this, -"Fear not, Abraham, for I am thy exceeding great reward."- Genceis. Not having been in New York at the reception of the Prince of Wales, I cannot say how much truth there is in the allegation that the arrangements made for the reception of the President were not on so grand a scale as those for England's heir. But if the Prince had to endure more fatigue, make more bows, and see more men in a conglomerated mass of genteels and roughs than have fallen to the lot of the President, I think the Prince deserved commisseration.

CITY OF BROTHERLY LOVE,

the old bell is useless now, like the doctrine it hail- silence. ed with gladness more than three score and ten of giving practical voice to its inscription.

THE PRESIDENT TAKES OFF HIS OVERCOAT.

The President helped raise what is called a national flag over Independence Hall, but it contained one star more than has any right to be there before the next 4th of July. I shall not describe not come. the minutia of the operation, though others have done so, even to the extent of the following item, which I quote from one of the reporters.

which caused many good-natured remarks."

You may infer from this what attention is paid to his every movement; and in the above named fact it is undeniably proved that however awkward the President may be on ordinary occasions, he then, and there "threw off his over count in an off-

A SERBING CONTRADICTION.

In the course of his speech on that occasion, he

"I have never had a feeling politically that did Declaration of Independence."

(Mem. To ask the President whether catching should not be asked to bring them here. niggers springs from a sentiment embodied in the The most distinguished jurists of the country

BARASSBURG.

From Philadelphia we came to this place, where the honors were again gone through with, speeches of welcome and responding speeches made, The mis-chance by which I was left at Cleveland hands shaken, leves held &c., &c. But imagine was in bed in the "Jones' House," the hotel at which he took supper on Friday evening.

TINDER-COUNTY PATERDAD.

immediately one hundred per cent; for here was comes transformed by this trick of legal legerde- mightily alter cases. opened a line of travel which was unanticipated main into a fugitive slave. when the road was built. It now has travel both The principle that a ward cannot deprive a and taking fugitive Presidents to the South. It is stored as a premise, that in Ohio the slave is property. be equal in extent of territory, and equal in number of principles of the control of the stored of the control of the contr to Washington and back-good for six weeks.

THE REASONS.

I told you in a previous letter that the arrangeperform; but bringing a herd of Buffaloes into ments made by the railroad companies were so subjection, is a much more difficult task than car- perfect, that the President did not get his life insured before starting. He missed it there, and it story was because his life was threatened, that he sneaked into Washington by the back door.

AN OUTRAGE.

State was one continued evation, and the friends feel outraged. We have lost speeches and a processof Scuator Seward appeared to forget the fact that cession in Baltimore, and speeches and a processto Scuator Seward appeared to forget the fact that cession in Baltimore, and speeches and a processto being, and invest it with no authority. But cession in Baltimore, and speeches and a processto being, and invest it with no authority.

The Guvernor opened the subject mildly, and frauded of material for numerous items, which

Jackson only answered by telling Letcher to read are dependencies, the State is Sovereign. has been put into the hands of Washington letter a certain instrument of writing on the table before State can create Countles, and it can become one writers. The programme having been laid down them. Letcher read it, and found it to be a war- of others to create a Federal Union. Blot out the before the Presidential party left Springfield, I hold rant for the execution of John C. Calhoun. "But, States of the Union one by one, and the Union it ought to have been adhered to, and a departure my dear General, you don't intend to carry out itself is annihilated; for the creature dies, when

The President, however, ought not to be censur-The President, however, ought not to be censur-look on the left corner of the paper; is the seal of ate Federal Unions. The Creator can become the young lady, deponent saith not threats, dared all danger, and without conceal-When we reached Albany the President looked ognition as the slave who flies from his master's vert to Mr. Pillsbury's lecture on Tuesday eveis exhausted, and a total failure of his strength is ning, for the benefit of Kansas. His subject was Jackson as alleged, was utterly destitute of legal "Foreign travel, and its lessons." As Mr. P. is Jackson signed such a warrant, is to be-little the dered Custom Houses; and not having been able Pittsburgh, hands with Gov. Morgan, gave a glance at all that baving ears, hear not, he presented to his auditors intelligence of "Old Hickory." some beautiful gems of thought descriptive of the scenes he had witnessed abroad, and unfolding the deep and holy teachings which come to the anthe sublime and beautiful scenes of Nature.

PARKER PILLBURY'S LECTURE.

His descriptions and illustrations were calculated to impress the minds, as well as to enchain the As the letter was not designed for publication. fitte and his pirate crew were gentlemen" compared massive columns sustaining a ceiling whose alti-dealt with. tude exceeded that of Bunker Hill Monument by In this connection we give "What a man saye," forty feet; they beheld the morning sunlight the editor of the Cincinnati Daily Press, a paper streaming with softened radience through its with which we are not personally acquainted, but many windows of stained glass, whose span was are informed, is Republican in politics. An article one hundred feet; and they saw the mixed multi- of upwards of a column in length on "The Ohio tude of worshippers where color, and clime, and Legislature" commences thus :-Perhaps it would be well to borrow Artemas cast, and station were all unnoted and forgotten; "This body is floundering in a constantly accuironakal.) Philadelphia was the next principal pouring forth thunder-peals of melody, that came is a pour forth thunder-peals of melody is a pour forth thunder-peal forth thunder-peals of melody is a pour forth thunder-peals of melody is a po stopping place. There, you know, stands Inde- school back and softened from the distant arches are weighing our words, and mean what we say, doubting faith that disunion is ruin-and then pendence Hall, and also the Hall in which the and architraves as though Heaven itself were re- and could justly add several more qualifying terms value as you ought this last three menths. If first Congress sat. There too, is the old bell, sponding to the prayers of the worshippers. And equally discreditable." which on a July morning in '76 shouted its joy passing from Art to Nature, he led his auditors in shrough its brazen throat when the American presence of the naspeakable majesty and granthrough its brazen throat when the American Congress and people declared that all men had an inalienable right to liberty, and felt throughout its metallic frame the justice of the command inscribed upon its form—"Proclaim liberty throughout its form—"Proclaim liberty in lib ed upon its form-"Proclaim liberty throughout signet ring, the testimony of His mighty power, the land, unto all the inhabitants thereof." But before which man reverently bent in awe and in

The lecture was replete with beauty and in-

Dis-United States.

AM ORIGINAL IDEA

Duffing the progress of the Lucy case, Commissioner White said,

"If the prisoner is proved to be a slave in Virhand cosy manner," which is certainly an impor- ginia, and that she escaped from there, I shall give tury, witnessing the incoming and the outgoing tant thing to know, a satisfactory thing to reflect a certificate to her owner to take her back. If of two generations of our people, he seemed, more upon, and a desirable thing for any man to be able this is not proved, she will not be taken back. If than almost any other one, a part of the town with the slave was brought to Ohio by her master's child whose growth and prosperity he was so intimately 'she is not free-the ward carried deprive the master associated. Skillful as a physician and believeof property."

Commissioner to take. Doubtless the slaveholder as well in public enterprise as in the walks of priwill thank him for it, for it would be very conve- wate life, and his death will make a void, greater, not spring from the sentiments embodied in the nient for the Miss Gosborns of the South to bring perhaps, than that occasioned by the removal of their Lucys and Betseys with them when they any other. As this seems to conflict with the opinion be visit Ohio, and for the Master Goshorne to come has elsewhere frequently expressed. That the with their Ceasars and Johns; and all that is nec-South is entitled to an efficient fugitive slave law, essary to establish the right to hold these servants I made the following entry upon my note book as slaves upon Ohio soil, is, that Pa's consent recognize the fact that so far as slavery has any gencer of Jan. 15th of that your, is the following: legal support, it is sustained only by local law. The U. S. Constitution in the single case of an he had made; which, to save all misapprebension, sioner White, the moment the traveling party VIOLENTLY IF THEY MUST." holder's children cease, and they are no more responsible for the status of the slave upon Ohio presch. Why was he not denounced as a traitor, But sure enough, he had gone, gone South on soil, than is the horse upon whose back he rode; as they are? Why was he not threatened with the under ground railroad, whose stock went up and the servant who was brought into Ohio, be hemp, as they are? Verily, circumstances do ways; bringing fugitive slaves From the South, guardian of his property is correct, but Commis- speech asks the following question. and taking fugitive Presidents to the South. It is sioner White makes a great mistake in assuming

A STORY OF GEN. JACKSON.

A correspondent of the Tribune tells this

A prominent gentleman in this State told me, on unquestionable authority, a reminiscence of the sovereignty, and has no absolute rights. A State days of nullification. It seems that Gov. Letcher, is organized without any reference to the Counties of Kentucky, who sympathized with the nulliflers existing within its borders. Counties delegate no from it may justly be classed under the head of a what this paper calls for?" "Gov. Letcher, is my its creators, who formed it out of themselves, have richation of contract.

In the contract of themselves, have richation of contract.

The contract of themselves, have richation of contract. is." "Very well, Governor; it is very seldom federative government is not Sovereign. States that I sign papers merely for effect. Governor, are Sovereign. They treate Counties; they cre

John C. Calhoun." ten if needed. But I submit that it is neither the people are expected to believe. If we could, pared with the egregious secondrels who are man-manly or brave to sneak into Washington, using we would attach to it as its future attendants, the following suggestive facts.

No person can be legally adjudged guilty of a Grand Jury in the State where the act was aldeath warrant referred to above, if signed by Gen. South did; and were we not all brethren?

"WHAT A WOMAN BAYS."

nointed soul when viewing the venerable and stu- the letter in our last issue but one, in which, un- Our Cincinnati brother now talks about the "Robpendous works of Art, or holding converse with der the above caption, the question is asked re- ber Government of Louisians," declares the auspecting the General Assembly, "Where did the thorities of that State have no more sense of juspeople find so many fools?"

attention of his auditors. They saw with him the the name was not given, but we presume the with them. piles of massive stones, the broken arches, and writer-Mrs. Arter of Salineville-will have no the fragmentary columns of the old Abbeys of Eng- objection to gratifying those who are curious in stolen forts, but keep their stolen men; refrain land, that perchance for ten centuries had borne regard to the matter. Mrs. A. is a woman who from plundering Custom Houses, and plunder only record of the religious zeal and willing sacrifice, is fully responsible for what she says, and never cradles, and they would speedily redeem their repas well as the artistic skill of those who laid the shrinks from the burden of proof. If the utter utation, and again become "All, honorable men." foundation stones and put the cornice in its place. humiliation of the Legislature at the feet of the They entered with him the mighty Cathedral at slave power, is characterized as nothing worse

And should the Presbyterian General Assembly leaders permit—to barter their government for legislate as requested, it would be a more sensible the hope of justice to the negro.

DEATH OF AM OLD CITIZEN.

On Wednesday morning last, Ds. BENJAMIN STANTON departed this life.

A resident of Salem for more than half a lent as a man, he was universally respected. His This is a remarkable position for even a U. S. departure will be felt by all classes in community,

A DISUBIONIST OF FORMER TIMES.

The venerable Josiah Quincy of Boston, who was a thember of the U. S. Sentto in 1811, when Lousiant applied for admission, made a speech against her reception, and in the National Intelli-

"Mr. Quincy repeated and justified a remark him as a fugitive slave; but that is the only exception, and proves the rule. A slave in Virginia UNION; that it will free the states from their

As rank Disunion as the fire-enters of 1861

"If a State and a County in a given case, should ple, is the State better than the County ?" We take it for granted that any one is at liberty to reply, although the propounder evidently Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad thought it a question that could not be answered A County, however densely populated, is but a part of a State's territory, and not a constituent portion of a State government. It possesses no what Gen. Jackson intended to do, and nullifica-tion lost all its venom from that hour. Gen. Jack-isians. We must, in other words, be taxed for It would have been manly, and brave, and beson said on his death-bed that he had only one coming of Presidential position to have defied all thing to regret, and that was that he had not hung Mississippi. The pirates of Algiers had as keen The above item is going the rounds of the pa- a sense of justice as the authorites of Louisians.

The above item is from a Cincinnati paper, treason, except upon the testimony of two persons spectful terms of "our Southern brethren." To which a few months since spoke in the most to an overt not. Before their testimony is furnished for his conviction, he must first be indicted by the North differed in regard to which was the best Mail, 5.38, a m, arrive in Cleveland, 7.40, a m a Grand Jury in the State where the act was alleged to be committed; he must then be tried by a the laborer, or that which bought the work of the laborer himcoing source. Court for that State, Seeing that Calhoun was calling hard names, or uttering unkind reflections. Mail, 11,42 a m, arrive in Wheeling 5,20 p m We had neither time nor space last week to ad-

After stealing men, the South went to stealing Foreign travel, and its lessons." As Mr. P. is authority and binding force! To affirm that Gen. Forts; having plundered cradles, they next plunto stop the mouths of abolitionists, they concluded Wheeling. to close the mouth of the Mississippi.

Lol what a change. The rights of men were Some enquiry has been made as to the writer of nothing, the rights of property are everything.tice than "the pirates of Algiers," and that "Lac

Let the authorities of Louisiana restore their

The number of names sent to the Legisla Antwerp, with its one hundred and twenty-five than folly, that body is beyond doubt tenderly ture from Salem, asking for equal legal rights, is ANTI-SLAVERY TRACTS 717. Probably a few more will be added to the Number 11 was not received in time for

WENDELL PHILLIPS ON PROGRESS.

"I reverently thank God that he has given me

Wilberforce could say on his deathbed, after fifty years toil, Thank God, I have lived to see the day Ferry, with his address to the Court. pp. 16. "Boy The Presbytery of Philadelphia (U.P.) has that England is willing to give twenty millions movement than was that which produced the anti- "But you will tell me of dark clouds-mobe in amalgamation law of the General Assembly of every Northern city. Orant'it, and more. When years ago. It is cracked; and all are considered struction; and those who heard it, as well as those Ohio; though in both cases marriage would be Lovejoy was shot at Alton, Illinois, white defendthat Mr. P should repeat it, but his engagements were such he could not do so. When a man possessing such talent and intellect as does Mr. Piller cracked who insist upon the duty and possibility who only heard of it, were exceedingly desirous taken measurably from the control of the indivi- ing his press, and Fanucil Hall was closed to his sessing such talent and intellect as does Mr. Pillebury, gives a lecture in Salem, it is eafer to go the bury, gives a lecture in Salem, it is eafer to go the first then to wait for the second which way.

No Slave-Hunting in the Old Bay-State: Ar Appeal to the People and Legislature of Massa
we held meet the salem and how the Mayor Constitute than to wait for the second which way. first time, than to wait for the second, which may the command is plain, that believers and unbelience permits, (bisses and great appliance,) yet no mornion and its auxiliaries. pp. 36. 3 cents bition can be found in that book against the inter- But raise your eyes from the diagraced pavements | Packager containing all of the above will be NEXT WEEK Buchanan will go out of office, and mixture of races and colors as such, and it is even of Boston, and look out broader. That same soil furnished for 30 cents, or if sent by mail 45 cents whether Lincoln will go in, seems to be a matter affirmed that some of the most distinguished that which drank the blood of Lovejoy now sends his The Postage on the Reign of Terror is 5 cts, on "Mr. Lincoln then threw off his overcoat in an not quite so satisfactorily established. If he does, acters in the Bible, did, in forming their marital brother to lead Congress in its fiercest hour; that the Right Way 3 cts, and on the others I cent each. off-hand, easy manner, the back-woodian style of his title should be changed to President of the relations, commit as act deemed worthy of the same prairie lifts his soul's son to crush the Union Redpath's life of John Brown for sale as above, penitentiary by our sage Legislature of 1860.61. | as he steps into the Presidential chair. Sloop in price 75 cents.

peace, marryr of Alton-good has come out of Ambrotypes. Photographs, and Iveratypes, Nathersth. The shot which turned back our State of the West from the waters of Charleston, and tolled the knell of the Union, was the rebound of the bullet that pierced your heart."

BRWERAL TWIDUS.

Wlaminoton, Feb. 26. The despatch received yesterday by the Secrets ry of War, informing him that General Twiggs and surendered the Military property to the revoutionists in Texas, was from the Commissary of subsistance, and dated at New Orleans. He adds that as a loan; the use of the Government means of transportation was allowed to take the Federal troops to the seaboard, and they were permitted to take with them three or four cannon and their side arms.

OBITUARY.

Died in Salem, Columbians county, Obio, on the morning of February 27th, 1861, Dr. BENJAMIN STANTON, in his Sixty eighth year.

The deceased was a native of North Carolina escaping slave provides a substitute for the local he committed to writting in the following words:

law by which he is held, and seizes and returns he committed to writting in the following words:

if this bill passes, it is my deliberate opinion. tion, and it was through his influence the first district school was established in the town. He early espoused the cause of the Southern slave; and ever gave his influence to the Temperance; and other reformatory movements.

> susscription paice to sucth; $150 PER ANNUM; INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE.-63

SET ISAAC TRESCOTT is duly authorized to be An Answer.-Lincoln, in his Indianapolis ceve all monies on account of subscriptions on the Bugle.

THE BUCKE can be obtained, every Friday, as Isaac Trescott's Book Store on Main street, Salein

	W	INT	ER ARRANGEM	ENT.
			GOING WEST.
Mail Train leaves Pittsburgh,				1.40 a m
:	1	:	Columbiana,	4.44 a m
- 1			Salem,	5.11 a m
	:	1	Alliance,	6.10 a m
Arriving in Chicago,				11.00 p m
Express Train leaves Pittsburgh,				1,40 p m
:	1	:	Columbiana,	4.34 p m
	1		Salem,	5.01 p m
		:	Alliance,	5.55 p m
	Arriv	ing i	n Chicago,	10.40 a m
			odation leaves
			. Pittsburgh,	2.30 p m
- 1	:	:	Columbiana,	6.32 p m
		1	Salem,	7.10 p m
Arrive at Alliance,				8.00 p m
			GOING BAST.
Mail Train leaves Chicago,				8.50 p m
-1		1	Alliance,	11.30 a m
1			Salem,	12,25 p m
	1		Columbians,	12.50 p m

3.40 p m Arrives in Pittsburgh, Express Train leaves Chicago, 6.10 a m Alliande, 10.30 p m 11.09 p m Salem, Columbiana, 11.35 p m Arrives in Pittsburgh, 2.30 a m Alliance, Salem. Columbiana, 7.26 a m 11.40 a m Arrives in Pittsburgh, CLEVELAND AND PITTSBURGH RAIL ROAD TIME TABLE.

Commencing Monday, Nov. 26th, 1860;= Trains leave Alliance as follows:

Petit Jury in the same State, and before a U. S. self. This question could be discussed without Mail, 11.42 a m, arrive in Pittsburgh 4.00 p m

Express, 10.42 p m, arrive in Wheeling 6.25 a m RETURNING TRAINS LEAVE 9.40 a m and 1.40 p m 1.40 a m and 10 50 a m and 9.50 r m

J. N. McCULLOUGH, Prost. F. R. Myzas, Gen. Ticket Agt.

MISS FENN. struction, is encouraged by the satisfaction she has given and the patronage she has received, to ansounce that she will commence har second term the first week in January. She will give instruction in both Vocal and Instrumental Music, and will be happy to meet those

Refet to Messes. Allen Boyle; or J. C. Whinery

The Trace Committee of the Western Anti-Sia very Society will furnish the following Tracts on application at M'Millan's Book-Store, Salem, Ohio-Correspondence between Lydia Maria Child and

The New Reign of Terror in the Slaveholding States, for 1859 and 1860. pp. 144. 10 cents. The Right Way the Safe Way, proved by Eman-cipation in the West Indies and elsewhere. By L. Maris Child. pp. 95. 10 cents. Testimonies of Capt. John Brown at Harper's

The Infidelity of Abolitionism, By Wm. Lloyd Garrison, pp. 12. 3 cents,

Speech of John Hoseack, convicted of a Violation of the Fugitive Slave Act at Chicago, Illinois

Platform of the American Anti-Slavery Society

fatin ar olly oth tout

PICTURE GALLERY; Over Horner's Storb, Salem, Ohlo, at Hollday prices dutil after the 29th of Jan., 1851. L. B. SIEVER, Proprieto:

UNDERTAKING All kinds of COFFINS familiahed as chare holde, and everything apportuniting to the bust-hoss attended to, by ROBERT HOLE Salem, Oct. 27, 1860.

SALEM SOAP&CANDLE WORKS: H. P. ADAM S & SON; CORNER OF MAIN AND LISBON STREETS, MANUFACTURERS OF

Every variety of Wassiby and Toilet Poups, and Refined Tallow Candles. Sea_Canti paid for Tallow; Greats taken in 82 change for Candles or Soap. Salem, Bec. 13, 1850

JAMES BARNABY, ATTORNEY AT LAW. SALEM, COLUMBIANA CO., OHIO. Office orei Chessman & Wright's Hardwille

HARRINGTON Is for sale by RS. H. F. M. BROWN,

Price, $1.25. Postage 25 cents. BOOKS AT COST. Mis H. F. M. Bkown, 288 Superior St., la few doors east of the Public Square, Cleveland, O.; has for sale a general assortment of

ANTI-SLAVERY BOOKS.

Among which are ! Among which are !

Shamah in Pursuit of Freedom, $1,25. James Redpath's Life of John Brown, $1.00. Helper's Impending Crisis; $1.00. Unconstitutionality of Slavery, by Lysander Spooner, 50 cents. Echoce of Harper's Ferry, $1.25; and a variety of other Books, all of which will be sold 30 per cents less than the retail price.

NEW BOOKS

The subscriber has now got on a Complete Assortment, and is prepared to furnish everything in BOOKS; STATIONERY, AND WALL-PAPERI Foley's Celebrated Gold Pens.

All Warranted to give Satisfaction. Spencer's Writing Books-Wholesale and Remik Books of the American Sunday School Union! Bibles, Prayer Books, Hymn Books, and all kinds of Theological, Historical, Poetical, Scientifica

Miscellaneous Books SCHOOL BOOKS OF EVERY DESCRIPTION Best quality of Writing Paper; as Wholesals of Retail. Blank-Books; Memorandums, Pass-Books; and everything else pertaining to the Business. J. Militalis R. Salem, Uct. 27, 1860.

THE CLOSING OF THE CAMPAIGN OF 1860. GRAND RALLY AT THE BREADWAY CLOTH AND CLOTHING

HOUSE. Well known as the Imagest and Chaspell Clothing House in the Country; Celebrated for its CHOICE STYLES OF GOODS! FASHIONABLE CUTI NEATNESS OF FITE

486 DURABILITY OF We keep no Bastern Work. Every Garmens made up here by Superior Workmen, of Goods bought directly of the Manufacturers and Imperters, and Warranted well made. REMEMBER THE PLACE: who desire to consult with her at Hall's Music Sign of the American Flag, Street's Block, BROADWAY, SALEM, OHIO.

> II. WEEKS & Co.; Propriesore: Salem, Nov. 3, 1860: Branch House, West and of Buckeye House,

VARIETY & NOTIONS. Having just returned from the East; I take pleasure in announcing to my numerous Suffomers and the public, that I have a large and carefully selecad stock of

DRY GOODS AND NOTIONS. Please call and see my White and Brown Muslins, Irish Lines, Flat Muslin, Delane, Cashmere, Gingham, Calico, White and Colored Planel, Shawls; Mens Under Shirts and Drawers, Wool and Zepher Hoods, Head Dresses, FANCY HAIR PINS, and Strirt Fronte; Combs and Brushes, Embroidery, Suspenders; White, Drab; and Blue Yarn, Silk, Oil Cloth, Hosiery, Gloves, Toys; Saletty Birds, and Notions of almost bbery variety: I have moved my Notlob and Variety Store, opposite the Town Hall, and One door Wes Callahan's Shoe Store, where I shall be present to wait on all who will give me a call. Thankful for past favore; l'atilf hope for a Mbers share of public patronage. B. B. BARR. Salem; Nov. 3, 1860. JOB WORK NEATLY EXECUTED.

BLANK DEEDS, Mortgages, Judgmen Notes and Summons for sale at this Om